Answers provided by University Athletic Association

Q71. Please confirm when the new student athlete-dining hall in the Athletic Training Center is scheduled to open.

A71. July 2022

Q74. Will the Heavener Center be used to facilitate food for concessions and suites?

A74. Not unless the provider is the same as the concessionaire.

Q75. Can we see the current station design and layouts for the dining and fueling bars in the Heavener Center? Can we also get square footage for the spaces?

A75. Please see attachments 35 and 36

Q76. Would all pregame meals be served in the new Heavener Center?

A76. Not all of them, coaches have the option to feed at their facility.

Q77. In the camps tab for 2019, it shows UAA having 39 camps in total. Will those camps be served in the Heavener Center?

A77. Some will, camps are private and operated by the coaches, they may choose to feed at their facility if easier.

Q78. The Heavener Football Training Center shows the available area reflected on the plans as only 1107 sq ft. We just want to confirm that is the correct square footage for dining.

A78. Please see attachments 35 and 36

Q79. Please provide the latest detailed plans of the training table venue under construction.

A79. Please see attachments 35 and 36

Q80. How many service days should be assumed for the training table operations?

A80. 7 days a week

Q81. Please provide blueprints / CAD drawing of the planned Athletic Feeding Facility. What is the projected seating capacity of this building? What space is allocated to dining and refueling? Will the dining area be accessible for all UF students? UAA?
